

Barrow AFC -Social Media Policy 2021

Statement of Intent

Barrow A.F.C are back in the Football League after many long years. After our enforced exile and the hard work of everyone on and off the pitch, we have returned to where we deserve to be.

Ray Wilkie said, “no one deserves it more than them” when talking of supporters after the Wembley win in 1990. We believe that should be the case for everyone involved in Barrow A.F.C when we work here- we deserve the best.

This document outlines clearly what we all expect and deserve as colleagues, when working for Barrow A.F.C:

- Barrow A.F.C expects all employees to work in positive and respectful manner with colleagues, stakeholders and the wider public at all times.
- Everyone who works at Barrow A.F.C should understand that their own behaviour, and the manner in which they conduct themselves, sets an example and reflects on the club
- Barrow A.F.C expects that all employees present themselves at work in a manner that reflects well on the club and creates a positive and professional impression
- Employees are expected to act outside work in a manner that reflects well on Barrow AFC and does not bring the club into disrepute, including use of social media
- All employees can expect and deserve proper support to fulfil these responsibilities to the best of their ability through positive support and professional development
- Barrow A.F.C expects all colleagues to work together as a team, sharing information so everyone can do the best job they can
- Everyone who works at Barrow A.F.C will be treated with equal respect and kindness, regardless of race, religious beliefs, gender or sexuality
- All employees can expect and deserve to have their overall performance measured against clear expectations outlined within their roles and responsibilities
- Everyone who works at Barrow A.F.C should understand their own responsibilities with regard to the Health, Safety and Safeguarding at work
- Barrow A.F.C undertakes to ensure if employees have a grievance there is a process to follow, which will be conducted in a fair and transparent manner

- Barrow A.F.C employees are bound by confidentiality and will have made a legal commitment not to disclose private business information regarding Barrow A.F.C to others

Barrow AFC understand everyone involved in football must recognise that the responsibility to safeguard exists both on and off the field of play. Coaches, club officials, volunteers and others in a position of trust in football need to act responsibly both on and off the field and this includes the use of electronic communications.

Clubs and leagues that set up websites have a responsibility to ensure safeguards are in place. Coaches, officials and those in a position of responsibility in clubs and must ensure they communicate responsibly. Clubs are responsible for ensuring all content hosted on their websites, social network areas and any associated message boards or blogs abide by the Rules and Regulations of The English Football League (EFL) and The Football Association

(FA)

The club should:

1. Refrain from publishing comments about other clubs, players or referees and any controversial or potentially inflammatory subjects.
2. Avoid hostile or harassing communications in any posts or other online communications. Harassment is any offensive conduct based on a person`s race, sex, gender identity, national origin, colour, disability, age sexual orientation, veteran status, marital status, religion or any other status identified by The Equality Act2010.
3. Identify all copyrighted or borrowed material with citations and links. When publishing direct paraphrased quotes, thoughts, ideas, photos or videos, give credit to the original publisher or author.
4. If it maintains a website, blog, chat room, video-sharing site, bulletin board or othersocial media that promotes their club, should remember they are responsible for reviewing responses to online posts and resolving any concerns about the propriety of the responses before they are posted.
5. If a blogger or any other online participant posts an inaccurate, accessory or negative comment about the club or anyone associated with the club, do not respond to the post and contact The Club Secretary for guidance/advice.

Employee whether full time or Part time must not:

1. Use text or emails for personal conversations, sending pictures, jokes or other items of a personal nature or engage in any 'banter' or comments with or about children at the club.
2. Use internet or web based mobile phones or other form of communications to send personal messages of a non-football nature to a child or young person.
3. Respond to emails or texts from young people other than those directly related to club matters.

4. Use language that is directly (or could be misinterpreted as being) racist, sexist, derogatory, threatening, abusive or sexualised in tone.
5. Accept as a friend, young players or any person employed or volunteering at the club who is U18 on social networking sites.
6. Share your own personal social networking sites with children or young people involved at the football club or ask them to be your 'friend'.
7. Make contact with children or young people known through football outside of the football context on social networking sites.
8. Post personal comments in relation to the management or operation of the club, club officials, Match officials, children, parent/guardian or opposition teams or any family members of those groups.
9. Delete any inappropriate text or email messages sent to you as they may form part of any subsequent investigation.

Parent Guidance

1. Know who the club Child Protection Officer is and how to contact them if you have any concerns about the content of club web pages or in relation to the welfare of your child
2. Ensure you are aware of how coaches, managers and other members of the club should communicate with your child
3. Show an interest in the communications between the club, you and your child. Open communication about club activities/issues often means that concerns are picked up early and issues can be resolved more easily
4. Familiarise yourself with The Football League's guidance for clubs in relation to websites, text messaging and social networking sites
5. Understand the club's communication practices. If the club uses text messages or emails as a source of communication you may request to be copied into anything sent to your child
6. Ensure your child understands that they should tell someone that they trust about communications that make them feel uncomfortable or when they've been asked not to tell their parent/carer or coach about the communication
7. Remember as a parent/carer of a child at the club you and your child are responsible for and need to abide by the club policy, The Football League Policy Guidance and The FA Rules and Regulations regarding comments that you place online about the club or club officials, The Football League, players, managers, match officials, opposing teams players or family members of any of those groups
8. Inform the club Child Protection Officer as soon as possible if you or your child receives any inappropriate communication from any member of staff/volunteer or other person associated with the club and save the communication

9. Parents must not use social media to speak ill of the club or any staff or associates or to comment on players, training or matches.

10. Parents must not reveal any information they may have received about a player

Player's Guidance

Players must not:

1. Post, host, text or email things that are hurtful, insulting, offensive, abusive, threatening, or racist as this would go against football club's rules and could also be against the law. Or post personal comments in relation to the management or operation of the club, club officials, match officials, players, opposition team member(s), or any family members of those above.

2. Engage in any personal communications, 'banter' or comments with staff / volunteer(s), players' opposition teams.

3. Give out personal details online including mobile numbers, email addresses or social networking account access to people you don't know well offline

4. Invite any adult involved with the club to become your friends online, or accept them as a friend on any social network site. They have been told they must not to accept such invitations

5. Use internet, web-based, phone or any other form of communication to send personal messages of a non-football nature to any member of staff/volunteer at the club

6. Delete inappropriate text or email messages sent to you as they may form part of any subsequent investigation

7. Use inappropriate language.

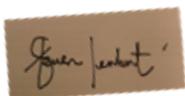

8. Reveal information about training, fixtures and contractual agreements etc using social media posts.

A breach of this policy will be considered by senior management All reports of cyberbullying and other technology misuses will be investigated fully and may result in notification to the police where Barrow AFC is obliged to do so.

Sanctions may include, but are not limited to, suspension, or banning from Barrow

AFC. Everyone must be aware that in certain circumstances where a crime has been committed, they may be subject to a criminal investigation by the police over which Barrow AFC will have no control.

Steven Herbert- Trust Director 28.2.2021

A small, rectangular piece of paper with a handwritten signature in black ink. The signature appears to be 'Steven Herbert'.